

Dear Parents,

Next Tuesday we have our Eco Day. This coincides with the 'Mad Hatter's Tea Party' that Gemma, our cook, will be preparing for lunch that day. We thought we would try to make the most of the nice weather and all eat together in a picnic style on the field. So if you have a picnic blanket or rug you could send in for your child that day, we would be extremely grateful.

Sports Day (Friday 15th June) will soon be upon us and will have slight changes this year. We aim to start activities at 10.30am. Again, hoping for sunny weather, we would like all adults to stay for a picnic lunch with their children. There will be a 'picnic lunch' available for children from Herts Catering on this day. If any adult would like to purchase one, it will be available for a cost of £3.35. Details of the menu will be available next week and orders will need to be placed by Monday 4th June. After a leisurely lunch, you will be invited to visit your child's classroom in the usual open afternoon style. Therefore we will not be having an open afternoon next Friday (25th May).

As I said in my previous newsletter, there will be various consent forms that we need to update. This week is e-safety. Please take time to talk through the statements on the new agreement with your child and sign and return to school.

And finally, enjoy the Royal Wedding or Cup Final this weekend, whatever your preference - I shall be watching both! Remember we will continue celebrating on Monday with our 'Prince and Princess day.'

Kind regards,

Mrs Nicky Hand
(Headteacher)

The 2018 Eco Day is nearly here! Please ensure that your children come to school on Tuesday 22nd May in their own clothes. Please bear in mind that we will be getting a bit grubby! A big thank you to those of you who have kindly donated items from our 'Wish List'. It's not too late to volunteer to help out, either for the whole day or just the morning or afternoon. We will keep you supplied with tea and biscuits. Please come and let the office know or speak to Mrs Andrews if you are able to help, or perhaps even donate any items.
