MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD

Dear Parents,

A huge well done to everyone who took part in our 6th annual Fun Run today. All the children had great fun. Thank you to all the parents who helped - whether you were running with children or being a race marshal. We couldn't have done it without you! Thanks also go to Ms Gauld, Mrs D'Arcy, Mrs Heritage and Mrs Leonard for organising the event.

A big thank you to FOG for organising the Mother's Day Gift Shop and for all their hard work. All the gifts looked lovely and I am sure all the mums will enjoy their Mother's Day surprises on Sunday.

Next week we have our annual Easter Egg hunt - thank you to FOG for funding the chocolate eggs for the children. We will be showing Trolls on Wednesday 29th March for Film Night - children may bring cushions to sit on. Please remember to pay by Monday 27th March to secure a seat.

The weather looks good for the weekend - have fun!

Kind regards,

Mrs Massey

GUEST EDITORS

Isabella (Class 1): "I ran really fast with my Mummy at the Fun Run today."

Ewan (Class 2): "We learnt about significant people. I drew a picture and wrote about Samuel Pepys. He wrote a famous diary about the Great Fire of London."

James M (Class 3): "In Maths we have been learning about 'time'. We made analogue clocks out of paper and split pins."

Ady (Class 4): "We have been learning about Vikings. They were really good raiders and used longships to travel. They were also pagans."

NOTICES & REMINDERS

Late Collection - children must be collected promptly at 3:10pm/3:15pm every day. Whilst occasional late collections, due to unforeseen circumstances are understandable, it is not acceptable to collect your child late every day. We do not provide a child minding service and persistent late collections will be referred to the Governors' Attendance Committee and, where necessary, social services.

Healthy snacks in school - please do not send in chocolates and biscuits for your child's break time snack. Thank you for your co-operation.

PGL 2017 - the final payment for PGL is due by 9:00am on Friday 31st March 2017. If we do not receive your payment by then, your child will lose his/her space on PGL.
